

11. – 13. October 2017 - GRK Workshop Oldenburg

Piero Nicolini (University of Frankfurt)

Planck scale black hole engineering

Abstract

We present in this talk a possible way to model Planck scale corrections to the Schwarzschild metric in agreement to recent proposals such as the quantum N portrait and the self-completeness paradigm. Some thermodynamics and phenomenology considerations will be also discussed.